CANDACE BARNES

Candace Barnes has been in the antiques and design business for over twenty-five years. She has done design work for many high-profile clients, and opened her first antique showroom, Candace Barnes, in 2001, in the San Francisco Design District. She has also created her own furniture line, Candace Barnes Now, and is opening an additional showroom in the San Francisco Design Center in March of 2011 to showcase this collection.

Barnes has participated in the San Francisco Decorator Showcase House, where she designed the Salon, and was awarded Best Showcase Room by California Home + Design magazine.

Her design projects have appeared in Papercity magazine, Western Interiors magazine, California Home + Design magazine, 1stdibs.com, the San Francisco Chronicle, 7 x 7 magazine, LuxeLife magazine, and on Channel 7's Dream Home with Lisa Quinn. She has also starred in many episodes of HGTV's makeover show Curb Appeal as the designer.

Barnes attended Syracuse University and obtained a degree in interior design and architecture.
